

Spring Writing Workshops

Please join us for a series of FREE writing workshops that will help you improve your writing!

All workshops will be held via Zoom. Register with the CRN# prior to the workshop.

Workshops—Spring 2023

The Blank Page

Monday, April 10, 4:00-4:50 (CRN#80491)

Tuesday, April 11, 11:30-12:20 (CRN#82392)

Get started with practical brainstorming and pre-writing strategies that will help you move past your insecurities and/or perfectionism. Dive in without hesitation!

Sentence Skills

Monday, April 17, 4:00-4:50 (CRN#80492)

Tuesday, April 18, 11:30-12:20 (CRN#82394)

Do you want to improve your grammar, punctuation, and overall sentence skills? In this workshop, you will learn how to craft a proper sentence. Please bring a draft of writing to workshop.

MLA Documentation

Monday, April 24, 4:00-4:50 (CRN#80493)

Tuesday, April 25, 11:30-12:20 (CRN#82395)

This workshop covers the basics of the documentation style most often used in the liberal arts and humanities.

APA Documentation

Monday, May 1, 4:00-4:50 (CRN#80494)

Tuesday, May 2, 11:30-12:20 (CRN#82396)

Join us to learn the documentation style used in social sciences such as psychology, nursing, and education, as well as the natural sciences.

Revise, Edit, and Proofread

Monday, May 8, 4:00-4:50 (CRN#80495)

Come learn helpful strategies for revising, editing, and proofreading your writing projects, as well as several ways to get outside feedback. Please bring a draft of writing to workshop.

For any questions, please contact: Alissa Hattman at alissa.hattman@chemeketa.edu.